District Superintendent's Report

In a second year of economic recession and severe budget cuts, our students, parents, and teachers managed to continue our academic progress. The achievements we saw this year include:

Two of our schools - Concord Elementary and T.L. Hanna High - received their International Baccalaureate authorization, something only a very small percentage of schools have earned. With McCants Middle School working towards authorization, we will soon have a kindergarten through 12th grade track of international studies that will enrich our students.

Southwood Middle School was named a national AVID Demonstration School, one of only two in the state and only 118 nationwide to earn this honor. Also, Southwood was one of two schools in the state named a "School to Watch" by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle Grades Reform.

McLees Elementary School was one of five state schools to earn the Exemplary Writing Award and one of two state schools to receive the Literacy Spot Award, which recognizes outstanding emergent literacy programs.

Eight schools earned a total of 10 Palmetto Gold or Silver awards this year. For General Performance, McCants, Concord, Calhoun Academy of the Arts, and Midway Elementary earned Gold Awards, Centerville Elementary, Homeland Park Elementary, and Nevitt Forest Community School of Innovation earned Silver Awards. For Closing the Achievement Gaps, Concord earned a Gold Award and Nevitt Forest and Westside High earned Silver Awards.

For the second consecutive year, Midway Elementary School of Science and Engineering was a finalist for the Palmetto's Finest Schools Award, the most prestigious statewide school award. Also, for the tenth consecutive year, our district earned the SchoolMatch "What Parents Want" Award, a national award given for meeting family needs. Only 16 percent of the nation's school districts earn this honor.

In individual honors, Dr. Jeff Wilson, our assistant superintendent for instructional services, earned the District Level Administrator of the Year award from the South Carolina Association of School Administrators (SCASA). Likewise, Layne Putnam, assistant principal of New Prospect, was named Elementary Assistant Principal of the Year by SCASA, Also, Lakeside Middle School math teacher Christi Fricks was one of just 87 teachers in the nation to earn the Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching.

Of course, the other important sign of progress in our district was the continuation of our $140 million building program, which was approved by more than 60 percent of district voters in our April 2007 referendum.
